Wilder Bros. Return to Marineland

Back again for a fifth appearance at the Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes are the dining establishment's perennial show-time favorites, the Wilder Brothers and their swinging Sextet.

The comedy-vocal-instrumental group just opened in the "Porpoise Room," exploding with all the iridescence of Fourth of July fireworks. Featuring a variety-crammed repertoire, their fast-paced comedy and instrumental artistry will top the entertainment bill through Aug. 12.

Highlighting the show is their big-sounding band with its full-scale arrangements. Authentic "take-offs" on the fabulous orchestras of the 30s and 40s, interspersed with comedy treatments and satirical vocals, are musical gems. The Wilder Brothers' singing talent matches their richly toned instrumentation, assuring musical vitality and foot-tapping enjoyment in the "Porpoise Room."

Last appearance of the song-and-fun group at the Marineland Restaurant was last July. In bringing back the Wilder Brothers for another return engagement, owner George M. Foster once more responded to demands of patrons who find their tuneful, hilarious shows nothing less than extraordinary crowd-pleasing entertainment.

Reservations in the "Porpoise Room" are suggested.
